

Business Internship Program

Haigazian University offers junior and senior students the opportunity to enhance and complement classroom learning and develop professional competence through work experience placements, called internship, in companies and organizations.

Internship is open to juniors and seniors in the Faculty of Business Administration and Economics. It is available across the career spectrum including:

Advertising, sales promotion, marketing

Media and performing arts

Finance and accounting

Hospitality, tourism, and recreational services

Computer services and applications

Education

Investment, insurance, and banking

Market research and public relations

International agencies and charities

Publishing and design

Internship provides a student with insight into a career field, practical experience, contacts in a job area, and opportunity for increased understanding of Lebanese and foreign issues in the work place. Students develop personal and professional skills and gain valuable experience relevant to a chosen major or career plan.

Each Emphasis has its own internship course name (BAD 299, ACC 299, ADC 299, FIN 299, HOM 299, HRM 299, and ECO 299)
