

BIO

Christine Arzoumanian Ghazarian is a multi-talented professional, serving as an entrepreneur, organizational psychologist, and lecturer at Haigazian University's Faculty of Business Administration & Economics. With over 15 years of experience, she excels in Consulting, Business Development, PR, Marketing, Human Resources Management, Training and Coaching. Christine is also a Tedx speaker (<https://bit.ly/3WzsRSL>) and a WHO EMRO awardee (<https://bit.ly/3Jmw3aV>). She is recognized for her humanitarian work with international organizations and UN agencies in Lebanon, where she focuses on enhancing education and living conditions.

TEACHING INTERESTS,

Entrepreneurship, Human Resource Management, Organizational Psychology, Business Management, Marketing, Community Development, Wellness, Peace Building, and Ethics.

RESEARCH INTERESTS,

Innovation, AI, Organizational Change, Organizational culture, Wellness Programs, Religion and Spirituality, HR trends, Entrepreneurship and Social Entrepreneurship.

PUBLIC LECTURES.

1. Wellness Presentations for Youth, Employees, and Employers (Companies, Institutions, Organizations, Schools, Universities, and NGOs)
2. Career Counseling Sessions.
3. Entrepreneurship, Marketing, and HR Skills' Workshops and coaching.
4. Guest Speaking Engagements with Lebanese TVs & Radio Stations.

ACADEMIC DEGREES

DBA, Paris School of Business –Paris, France

MSc, London Metropolitan University –London, UK (Behavioral & Organizational Psychology)

Certified & Licensed Wellness Coach – Wellcoaches, USA

MA, Lebanese American University (International Affairs)

BBA, American University of Beirut (Management)